

I just wanted to say that I think FOX did a tremendous job with the halftime show this year. Not only was the music better than what we normally have available, but Paul McCartney brought back a little class & dignity to the event. I am very pleased with how the production turned out. Nice job FOX & Paul McCartney!